Dear Dr. Go:

Thank you for your letter of December 25, 2002, regarding the seatbelt that you have designed, which you suggest will provide a more effective passenger restraint system than is currently available in automobiles or aircraft.

The National Transportation Safety Board is an independent Federal agency mandated by the U.S. Congress to investigate transportation accidents, determine the probable cause(s) thereof, and make recommendations to prevent future accidents. The Safety Board is not authorized to endorse or recommend products or to conduct or sponsor research and development activities. Therefore, you may want to contact the following officials at the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) and the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration:

Mr. Nelson J. Miller, Manager
FAA Technical Center
AAR4
Aircraft Safety Research Branch
Atlantic City Airport, New Jersey 08405

Mr. James Saunders, Room 6226
Applied Research
National Highway Traffic Safety Administration
400 Seventh Street, S.W.
Washington, DC 20590

Thank you for your interest in transportation safety.

Sincerely,

John Hammerschmidt
